

List of Contributors

Jasmine Beinart

Jasmine Beinart is a PhD candidate at the University of Adelaide researching antisemitism in modern Australia. She holds a MA in Holocaust Studies from the University of Haifa and was an Analyst at the Online Hate Prevention Institute where she contributed to a major report on antisemitism after 7 October 2023.

Lauren Chalk

Dr. Lauren Chalk (she/her) is a museum professional and researcher. A recent PhD graduate, her dissertation examined critical heritage practices, new museology, cultural justice, and diasporic cultural expressions. Dr. Chalk's work centres on advocating for the histories and lived experiences of minoritised communities, as reflected in her curatorial and operational roles in community museums. Dr. Chalk is a Research Fellow at the Australian Centre for Jewish Civilisation, Monash University.

Benjamin J. Elton

Rabbi Dr Benjamin J. Elton is the Chief Minister of The Great Synagogue, Sydney. He earned an MA in History at Queens' College, Cambridge and a PhD in Jewish History at Birkbeck, University of London. He is a Fellow of the Royal Historical Society of London and holds Honorary positions at the University of Sydney and the University of Notre Dame, Australia. He has written in Anglo-Jewish and Australian Jewish history and theology.

Jason Goroncy

Jason Goroncy is Associate Professor of Theology at the University of Divinity, Australia. He has published widely in the fields of theological aesthetics, religion, culture, and ethics, and, most recently, has edited the T&T Clark Handbook of the Doctrine of Creation (Bloomsbury, 2024).

Avital Hecht

Dr. Avital Hecht is the head of the Shoah Memorial Center at Gordon College of Education, Haifa, Israel. She is also a researcher and lecturer in the fields of ethics, gender, and history.

Angelica Jacob

Angelica Jacob is a PhD Candidate at Monash University's School of Media, Film and Journalism. She earned a Master of Philosophy from UNSW Sydney's School of Social Sciences in 2024. A Bene Israel, Angelica is co-founder and past president of the Indian Jewish Association of Australia and New Zealand Inc (IJAANZ).

Atara Kaye

Atara Kaye, BPsycSci., GradDipPsycAdv., MPP, MAPS, is a registered psychologist in Sydney, Australia, and the founder of the Purple Rain Psychology clinic.

Mushka Kaye

Mushka Kaye, BMedSci (UNSW), is a medical student at Western University of Health Sciences. Raised in a Chabad Chassidic household, she brings deep cultural sensitivity and empathy to her medical education, with a strong commitment to serving and understanding underserved communities.

Darren O'Brien

Dr Darren O'Brien is Honorary Senior Research Fellow, School of Historical and Philosophical Inquiry, University of Queensland; Adjunct Lecturer, The University of Sydney Susan Wakil School of Nursing and Midwifery; President of the Australian Institute for Holocaust and Genocide Studies and Director of the Australian Stumbling Stones project. He has been teaching, researching and writing in the field of Holocaust and comparative genocide studies for 30 years.

Paul O'Shea

Dr Paul O'Shea recently completed a PhD in History at the University of Leicester. Dr O'Shea's research is on friendship and social relations between male prisoners in the Nazi Concentration Camp system.

Elisheva Perelman

Dr. Elisheva A. Perelman is an Associate Professor of History at the College of Saint Benedict + Saint John's University in Minnesota (USA). She is the author of American Evangelists and Tuberculosis in Modern Japan (Hong Kong University Press).

Suzanne D. Rutland

Suzanne D. Rutland (OAM, PhD), Professor Emerita, Hebrew & Jewish Studies, University of Sydney, is a past president of the Australian Association for Jewish Studies, patron of the Australian Jewish Historical Society, and member of the Australian IHRA Delegation. She is a widely published author on Australian Jewry.

Susan Samardjian

Susan Samardjian is an associate at the British Educational Research Association. She holds a Master's degree in European and Russian Affairs from the University of Toronto's Munk School of Global Affairs and Public Policy, and a Bachelor's degree in History from Toronto Metropolitan University.

Anne Sarzin

Anne Sarzin has two doctorates. Her first PhD thesis focused on the dramatic works of playwright Athol Fugard and her second was a biographical study of Dr Fanny Reading. Anne's adaptation of her doctoral thesis, The Angel of Kings Cross: The Life and Times of Dr Fanny Reading, was published in 2023. With her daughter, Dr Lisa Sarzin, Anne co-authored Hand in Hand: Jewish and Indigenous People Working Together, for which they interviewed more than 80 participants involved in collaborative initiatives in Australia. Anne has worked as editor in university media units in Sydney and as a freelance journalist, with her research articles published in Australia and abroad. She lives in Sydney, works as a researcher/writer—and teaches qigong.

Dovi Seldowitz

Dovi Seldowitz is Lecturer in Community Services at Acknowledge Education, and a PhD candidate in Sociology at the University of New South Wales.

Jennifer Skeritt

Dr. Jennifer Skeritt is Adjunct Lecturer (History, Ancient History) at Sheridan Institute of Higher Education, Perth, Western Australia. Her chapter, co-written with Lovenein Kaur, on the presence and culture of Ethiopian Jews, was published by Bloomsbury in September 2025, in Religion and Identity in the Indian Ocean World, edited by Mark Fielding and Joshua Esler.

Andrea Stern

Andrea Stern PhD was formerly Visiting Associate Professor at Ahmedabad University, Gujerat, India, and Senior Lecturer at the University of Sydney, Australia.